

Enduring Understandings Driver Education 2008

1. The student will know the steps for obtaining a driver license.
2. The student will be able to apply road rules to specific driving situations.
3. The students will explain why signs, traffic signals and pavement markings are an effective method of indicating right of way, directional flow, and dangerous conditions.
4. Students will understand why crashes occur and the many ways a crash could affect their life.
5. Students will understand driving has risk and know how to assess and manage risk when in a car.
6. Students will understand how environment, natural laws and weather will affect driving.
7. Students will understand the extreme hazard of using cell phones, alcohol and other drugs when driving.
8. Students will know how their own attitudes and behaviors affect their ability to be safe and responsible drivers.
9. Students will need to understand that a driver needs to perform many complicated maneuvers in order to become a responsible driver.
10. Students will understand basic car maintenance and the relationship of safe cars to safe driving.