

Power Standards

AP Ceramics Jody Benson

1. Students will be able to understand that organizing the principle will change the emotion of their art.
2. Students will be able to understand that using the right tool will create professional looking results.
3. Students will be able to understand that glazing will enhance or distract in the unity of the composition.
4. Students will have confidence and desire to create ceramics throughout their life.
5. Students will be able to understand that quality presentation of the student's best work will influence the viewer to recognize their talent.
6. Students will be able to understand that honestly evaluating their own art work will increase their art skills.
7. Students will be able understand that proper care and storage of materials and equipment will make the lab safe and more efficient to find.